

Students at the University of South Carolina currently need to carry a physical Carolina Card for access to buildings, parking, and campus services. Forgetting or losing the card causes major inconvenience.