

About Cola Clothes

A circular marketplace built specifically for reselling and recycling high-demand fashion right here in Columbia, South Carolina.

Reselling with Soda City Spirit

Founded in 2024 by local fashion curators, Cola Clothes is our response to fast-fashion waste. We realized that Columbia has an incredible community of style enthusiasts who love high-quality garments but wanted an easy, safe way to keep their closets circular.

Our mission is localresell first. Whether you meet your neighbors at the local weekly market or choose carbon-neutral shipping, every purchase supports a sustainable future for South Carolina fashion.

Our Core Pillars

How we drive sustainability forward, together

Sustainability

Keeping clothes out of state landfills. Extending active clothing lifespans is the best way to reduce environmental footprint.

Community First

Connecting buyers and sellers locally in Columbia. Keeping resources circulating within our community strengthens South Carolina ties.

Quality Guarantee

Every seller is verified. We look for pristine vintage wear, sturdy workwear, and genuine designer details.

Affordability

Premium designer wear shouldn't break the bank. Find iconic brands for a fraction of retail prices.
